

Response to Text Cards – K-1 Front

What genre is this book?

How do you know?

Which of these books looks like it will be imaginative or make-believe?

How do you know?

Which of these books looks like it will give you information about the topic?

How do you know?

What is the main problem?

How do you know?

Who is the story critical character?

How do you know?

Where is the story critical setting?

How do you know?

What is the story critical object?

How do you know?

How is the character feeling?

How do you know?

Response to Text Cards – K-1 Front

What is the author describing?

What is your evidence?

What can you infer in this picture?

What is your evidence?

What is this text feature?

Why does the author include it?

Which _____ is your favorite?

Provide evidence to support your choice?

What does _____ do that you wish you could do?

Provide evidence to support your choice?

What foods do you and _____ share as a favorite?

Provide evidence to support your choice?

Response to Text Cards – K-1 Back

_____ looks like it is an imaginative or make-believe book.

I know this because
_____.

The main problem is
_____.

I know this because
_____.

The story critical setting is
_____.

I know this because
_____.

The character is feeling
_____.

I know this because
_____.

The genre of this book is
_____.

I know this because the author _____.

_____ looks like it will give you information about a topic.

I know this because
_____.

The story critical character is _____.

I know this because
_____.

The story critical object is
_____.

I know this because
_____.

Response to Text Cards – K-1 Back

I can infer that _____.

The author is describing _____.

One piece of evidence is _____.

One piece of evidence is _____.

My favorite _____ is _____.

The text feature is _____.

I like the fact that _____.

The author includes it to _____.

_____ and I both like to eat _____.

I wish I could _____ like _____.

It is our favorite because _____.

I would like to _____ because _____.